

Yuzhou (Echo) WU

1034 Chinook St.
Auburn, Alabama 36830
(334) 332-3751
yzw0002@auburn.edu

---

CAREER OBJECTIVE: International business education development
International students recruitment/replacement
Academic support for international students

PROFILE

A second master's degree pursuer with comprehensive business management education and various language teaching related experiences. Passionate to foster business and academia relationship to build international business education.

- Enthusiastic about international and multicultural management of education
- A positive and congenial personality for building and strengthening effective communications among diverse populations
- Highly organized, attentive to details, and effective with time management and problem solving skills
- Strong sense of responsibility as team leader and effective team coordinator
- Competent information collection and analysis by using statistical software such as SPSS, and STAT

EDUCATION

Auburn University

Candidate for Master of Business Administration (M.B.A), Dec. 2008 Auburn, AL, US

University of Nottingham

Master of Arts in Risk Management (M.A.), Dec. 2005 Nottingham, UK

Dissertation topic: The Evolution of UK & US Corporate Governance—A Comparative Study

Shanghai International Studies University (SISU)

Bachelor of Arts in International Economics and Trade (B.A), June, 2004 Shanghai, China

Awarded SISU scholarship annually

UNIVERSITY INVOLVEMENTS

- President of Chinese Students & Scholars Organization (CSO) at Auburn University 2007
  - Responsible for leading and coordinating CSO board and maintaining CSO internal activities
  - Organized various cultural exchange programs with the Auburn International Office
  - Initiated proposals to establish better international students' accommodations and community

Yuzhou (Echo) Wu
1034 Chinook St.
Auburn, Alabama 36830
(334) 332-3751
yzw0002@auburn.edu

- Manager of Chinese Taiji Club at Auburn University 2007
  - In charge of setting up performance arrangements and daily club affairs
- Member of Academic Support Team at the University of Nottingham 2005
  - Trained about general knowledge of disability services
  - Provided practical and academic support for disabled students
- Student administrator conducting investigations for SISU 2000-2003
  - Proposed various types of investigative reports about college life
  - Proficient at analyzing statistical information by using processing software including Microsoft Word, Excel spreadsheet, and the SPSS statistics package
- Reporter and editor of a university newspaper in SISU, Shanghai 2001-2004
  - Led a group of reporters contributing monthly important events about SISU
  - Initiated proposals, allocated works, and coordinated group members

WORKING EXPERIENCE

- Chinese teacher at Auburn University free language learning program, Auburn, AL 2007
  - Responsible for teaching Americans the Chinese language
- Chinese teacher at Auburn Chinese school, Auburn, AL 2006-2007
  - Responsible for teaching American-born Chinese teenagers the Chinese language
- English translator/interpreter of Changzhou Translation & Advertising Co., Ltd. China 2006
  - Efficient and professional translator well-recognized by business partners
- Note-taker for disabled students in the University of Nottingham, UK 2005
  - Well-trained in note-taking skills for disabled students
- English teacher in SISU foreign language service center, Shanghai, China 2002-2003
  - Enthusiastic, patient, and creative at teaching elementary students the English language